We are experiencing an economic crisis with no precedent. In this volatile environment, legal leaders face unprecedented challenges, including frozen or reduced budgets and headcount, unpredictable workstreams, and strained internal resources.

Typical responses are not sufficient due to the size and pace of change:

- ✗ Law firm discounts won't be enough to meet budget reduction mandates
- ✗ Legal transformation projects are too lengthy and complicated to execute
- ✗ Deferring legal work will disrupt and delay business' critical work

THERE'S A BETTER WAY:
RETAIN CONTROL OVER YOUR RISK, RESOURCES, AND TEAM

Reset how you think about, access, and utilize talent for in-house and external legal work.
